✗ Change of Plans (Personal)

Eligibility: NO refund

What you get:

- Refundable ticket: Refund minus fee
- Non-refundable: eCredit minus fee
- Basic Economy: Nothing (forfeit)

Exception: Within 24 hours of booking = free cancel

How to Check Your Refund Eligibility

Step 1: Identify Your Ticket Type

Find it on confirmation email:

- "Basic Economy" = Most restricted
- No mention = Usually non-refundable
- "Refundable" = Clearly stated

Or call: +1 (844) 213-73-19 with confirmation number

Step 2: Determine Reason

United's fault:

- Cancellation
- Major delay
- Schedule change
- = REFUND ELIGIBLE

Your situation:

- Medical
- Death

- Military
- = DOCUMENT for refund

Personal choice:

- Change of plans
- = eCredit only (usually)

Step 3: Check Timing

Within 24 hours of booking:

- All tickets = Full refund

After 24 hours:

- Depends on ticket type + reason

Already departed:

- Outbound used = No refund for outbound
- Return unused = Potential value

Step 4: Calculate What You'll Get

Refundable ticket canceled:

- Ticket price minus $200-400 fee = Your refund

Non-refundable canceled:

- Ticket price minus $99-199 fee = eCredit

Basic Economy canceled (after 24hrs):

- $0 (forfeit)

International vs Domestic Refunds

International Flights

Additional rights:

- EU Regulation 261/2004 (flights from EU)
- UK Air Passenger Rights
- Higher compensation potential

Refundable taxes:

- Some international taxes refundable even if ticket isn't
- ~$50-200 possible on non-refundable tickets

 International booking? Call +1 (844) 213-73-19 for country-specific rules

Domestic Flights

Standard rules:

- DOT regulations apply
- 24-hour rule mandatory
- Refund if United cancels

Simpler process than international

What Documentation Strengthens Your Case

Helpful Documents:

For Medical:

- Doctor's note (original)
- Hospital records
- Prescription evidence
- Medical bills

For Bereavement:

- Death certificate (certified copy)
- Obituary
- Funeral program
- Proof of relationship

For Military:

- Official orders (signed)
- Military ID
- Chain of command contact

For United Issues:

- Photos of delay board
- Agent statements
- Receipts for expenses
- Email/text notifications from United

More evidence = better approval rate
